

Application for Donations or Pro Bono Services

Every four months, Brendle Group reviews applications submitted by non-profit and educational organization for pro bono services or grants to support events, projects, or initiatives that align with Brendle Group's vision and mission.

Criteria for submitting an application include the following:

- Applicant must be an established 501C3 non-profit or educational organizations (no individuals or for profit companies).
- Applicant must describe intended use of grant funds.
- Requested amount cannot exceed $500 or 40 hours of support.

Brendle Group will review all applications with a priority given to organizations in Northern Colorado and Denver with a commitment to sustainability and social, economic, and/or environmental objectives.

- For awards made in May – submit applications no later than March 31.
- For awards made in September – submit applications no later than July 31.
- For awards made in January – submit applications no later than November 31.

Date: _____

Name of Applicant: _____

Organization: _____

Address: _____

City: _____

State: _____ Zip Code: _____

Phone Number: _____

Email: _____

Website: _____

Amount Requested: _____

Matching Funding Available? Yes No

If yes, explain:

In 500 words or less, please describe the project or initiative for which you are requesting a donation or pro bono support. Please include a specific explanation of how the funds will be used to support this project or initiative.

If you have any questions, please contact us at 970.207-0058. Completed applications should be sent via email to info@BrendleGroup.com. You will be contacted following the review of the application by our community outreach team. Additional materials or explanation may be requested.